Do you qualify for Membership?

Membership comes in four grades and is open only to professionally qualified Complementary (or Conventional) medical practitioners and students. The four membership levels are:

- Full Member
- Affiliate Member
- Associate Member
- Student Member

There is a fifth category of membership - Friends of the CMA. See below for details.
In order to qualify for any of these levels of membership, you must meet the following criteria:

FULL MEMBERS

Annual Fee £150

A minimum of two years medical (Complementary or Conventional) experience and a qualification through a CMA recognised college. Members will receive a Member Certificate (renewable each year), an ID card, the CMA Newsletter, preferential admission rates for seminars and talks, competitive insurance rates, discounts off medical equipment etc, preferential bookings for seminars and an opportunity to join the CMA referrals scheme. Full members are entitled to use the initials "MCMA".

AFFILIATE MEMBERS

Annual Fee £150

Open to Senior Practitioners who do not hold a formal qualification, but who have extensive experience and an established practice which has run for more than 5 years. Senior practitioners with complementary medical experience but no recognised medical qualifications may join after an interview by the selection committee. In addition, they will need to be proposed and seconded by two existing members of the CMA. Affiliate Members will receive an Affiliate Member Certificate (renewable each year), an ID Card, the CMA Newsletter, preferential admission rates for seminars and talks, competitive insurance rates, discounts off medical equipment etc, preferential bookings for seminars and an opportunity to join the CMA referrals scheme. Affiliate members are entitled to use "CMA Affiliate Member".

ASSOCIATE MEMBERS

Annual Fee £100

Open to recently qualified practitioners from CMA recognised colleges (Complementary and Conventional). Associate members will receive an Associate Member Certificate (renewable each year), an ID Card, the CMA Newsletter, preferential admission rates for seminars and talks, competitive insurance rates, discounts off medical equipment etc, preferential booking for seminars and an opportunity to join the CMA referrals scheme. Associate members are entitled to use "CMA Associate Member".

STUDENT MEMBERS

Annual Fee £50

Open to students at CMA recognised colleges (Complementary and Conventional). Student members will receive a Student Member Certificate (renewable each year), an ID Card, the CMA Newsletter, preferential admission rates for seminars and talks, competitive insurance rates, discounts on medical equipment etc, and preferential bookings for seminars. Student members are entitled to use "CMA Student Member".

FRIENDS OF THE CMA

Donation of £25 (or more)

This category is open to anyone who wishes to ensure the success of the CMA and the continuance of our promotion of complementary medicine to a wider audience. This membership will be awarded in recognition of donations of £25 or more to the Association. You will receive the CMA Newsletter and will be able to attend seminars, talks, etc at reduced prices.

"It will only take a few minutes of your time to complete the short application form. Send it right away and I'll ensure it receives immediate attention. I look forward to hearing from you".

Roberta MacMillan, Membership Coordinator.
